MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF

As I reflect on this, the tenth edition of the Chandler Police Department's Annual Report for which I have provided an introduction, I am reminded of the many changes that have occurred within our Department and community over the past decade.

For Fiscal Year 2003-04, our report highlighted the numerous programs and events that the Chandler Police Department offers for the youth of our community. Fiscal Year 2006-07 saw the opening of our Desert Breeze Substation, and 2007-08 featured the subsequent opening of the Chandler Heights Substation. In 2009-10, the City dedicated its beautiful Public Safety Memorial. The Annual Report for 2011-12 highlighted the implementation of new police records management and computer aided dispatch systems. As indicated in these reports, it is significant to note that, between 2003 and 2012, we have seen a 40% decline in Part I crime rates.

As you read through this report, you will see the latest changes and accomplishments for Fiscal Year 2012-13 as we continue to add to our rich history. Community outreach remains a focus: this year saw the Department's inaugural participation in a partnered "Trunk or Treat" event. Continuing in its efforts to improve crime suppression and response, the Department changed the City's police beat alignment. Department infrastructure enhancements this year included a remodel to our 23-year-old Communications Section and an expansion in our Property and Evidence Facility to better serve our customers.

Amidst the many changes, core tenets remain a constant - the professionalism, dedication, and commitment of the members of the Department to best utilize our resources to fight crime and to protect the residents of Chandler.

It has been a distinct honor to serve with the men and women of the Chandler Police Department.

Please enjoy the 2012-13 Annual Report.

Sherry Kiyler, Police Chief

“Part I Crimes” are specific crimes uniformly identified by law enforcement agencies as a baseline for activity within an agency’s jurisdiction. # RETIREMENTS

When Sherry Albert (Kiyler) applied to become a police dispatcher, her thoughts were on paying the rent. Little did she know that she had just taken the first step on a 40-plus-year journey that would see her climb through the ranks of one of the largest metropolitan police agencies in the country and finally lead a cutting edge suburban police department into the new millennium. Sherry Kiyler made her mark on a male-dominated profession with hard work and a commitment to justice. After 32 years with the Phoenix Police Department, where she began as a dispatcher and retired as a Commander, she attained her objective of becoming a Police Chief when she came to Chandler in 2004. After an extensive organizational review, Chief Kiyler, along with her command staff, set out the goals that were to become the hallmark of her tenure: Crime Suppression; Building Partnerships and Relationships; and Developing Department Infrastructure.

During Chief Kiyler's nine years as Chandler's top law enforcement officer, crime rates declined significantly, showing a 40% drop in Part 1 crimes between 2003 and 2012. She, along with several other Chiefs from neighboring cities, founded the East Valley Police Chiefs Association with Chief Kiyler serving as its inaugural chairperson. The Association has developed into a strong collaboration that has addressed issues cooperatively, created the East Valley Fusion Center, and improved the seamless delivery of law enforcement services among the respective cities through participation in a number of multi-agency task forces. In addition, her community outreach cemented relationships between the Department and numerous local non-profits.

Finally, she was at the helm when the Chandler Police Department opened two new substations, adopted and implemented a new records management system, and completed a comprehensive overhaul of the Communications Center, making it a state-of-the-art facility that will serve the department and the community for years to come.

Chief Kiyler credits the men and women of the Chandler Police Department for these accomplishments, always noting that staff has had to do more with fewer resources for several years. Despite the challenges, her vision and leadership have kept the department moving forward in pursuit of its goals. Having hired and/or promoted 253 of its current 480 employees, she has helped to define and shape the future of the Chandler Police Department for many years to come and to ensure her place in its history.

CHANDLER POLICE DEPARTMENT ORGANIZATION CHART

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES

This year, the Department implemented some internal changes. The cessation of an intergovernmental agreement with the Town of Gilbert regarding provision of Forensic Services led to the elimination of two Criminalist positions and a Crime Scene Technician position. The Department permanently assigned an officer to the role of Training Officer due to increasing training needs. A Police Administrative Specialist was assigned to the Department's Technology Section to assist with administrative duties in that area. An Operations Support Supervisor position was reclassified to Management Assistant to oversee facility maintenance. A Police Administrative Specialist was reclassified to Impound Hearing Specialist to better reflect the role associated with that position. A Police Fleet Aide position was eliminated. Regarding facilities, the Property and Evidence Facility expanded its reception area to now include an "evidence viewing room." The Communications Section experienced a significant remodel to its aging work area. On a Citywide note, the Department implemented a redesign of beat structure in order to equalize patrol work load and to improve service to the public.

DUI TASK FORCE

This fiscal year, the Chandler Police Department again participated in the East Valley DUI Task Force. This annual effort comprises hundreds of officers and spans fifteen nights. The 2012 event kicked off on November 30th. The effort continued through the holiday season and moved throughout the entire East Valley until its conclusion on New Year's Eve.

While this effort has always involved multiple jurisdictions, this year the Chandler Police Department provided 27 officers to work 136 shifts in an effort to keep the streets safe from impaired drivers. Over the 2012 holiday period, officers made 1,218 traffic stops which resulted in 125 arrests for DUI. Arrests this year included "aggravated" and "extreme" DUI categories, as well as arrests for driving under the influence of drugs. Additionally, officers also issued hundreds of citations and warnings for other driving-related violations.

Many agencies partner to keep drunk drivers off our streets.

The visibility and support of the multi-jurisdictional effort, coupled with the mission of the Governor's Office of Highway Safety, has proven to be effective and valuable in the effort to protect the driving public. The ongoing use of directed enforcement and saturation patrols provides the best opportunity to impact our community by focusing on specific areas of concern identified through statistics or by residents. Reducing accidents and saving lives enhances the quality of life in Chandler and remains a focus of the Department's Traffic Unit.

CHANDLER HONORS CANINES

Demonstrations are an enjoyable task performed by Chandler's K-9 Unit.

The Chandler Police Canine Unit is recognized as one of the most skilled in the state. In addition to performing criminal apprehensions, the Chandler canine team is comprised of accomplished sniffers - in narcotics and explosives. This year marked the passing of two of the Department's most loyal servants. Canines Duke and Chase passed away, leaving behind memories of dedicated service.

Duke

Duke served for 10 years throughout the valley. Assigned to Officer Stephen Waters, he became one of Chandler Police Department's first bomb dogs. Notable accomplishments included performing bomb sweeps for the Super Bowl, various All Star Games and visitation sites of Presidents Bush and Obama. Duke was well known throughout the police canine community and routinely placed first in the annual Desert Dog K-9 Trials. Duke was all business, and through his last days he would search endlessly - even when his body had difficulty keeping up.

Chase

Chase came to the Department in 2000 as the result of the community fund raising efforts of Safeway, New Vista Academy and Staples. Originally named "Carlo," Chase was renamed by the sixth grade class at Erie Elementary School. He was assigned to Officer Al Bacon in January 2001 and soon became certified in narcotic detection. During his career, Chase assisted officers with apprehending suspects and with detecting illegal street drugs. He loved impressing children during demonstrations. Chase worked for approximately nine years until retiring in 2010. His absence will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

G.A.I.N. EVENT PROVIDES OPPORTUNITY FOR POLICE TO INTERACT WITH COMMUNITY

For a number of years, the Chandler Police Department has participated in and supported "G.A.I.N." events - this year was no exception. G.A.I.N. stands for Getting Arizona Involved in Neighborhoods and is Arizona's version of National Night Out. During this event, communities throughout the state participate in anti-crime and drug prevention programs. Not only does G.A.I.N. strengthen ties within the community, it is also an opportunity for the Police Department to show its appreciation for community support in the fight against crime. These celebrations, often in the form of block parties, take place in various neighborhoods throughout the city. Community partnerships and relationships are strengthened while joining together for food, music, fun and games!

G.A.I.N. events allow citizens to learn more about the Department's vehicles, equipment and personnel.

Objectives of the G.A.I.N. event include:

- To show support for the efforts of those involved in the fight against crime;
- To heighten crime and drug prevention awareness;
- To generate support for, and participation in, local anti-crime programs;
- To strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships; and,
- To send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

The 2012 G.A.I.N. event was held on Saturday, October 20th, with thirty-five neighborhoods scheduling police officer visits. Appearances were also made by Handy the Graffiti Buster, McGruff the Crime Fighting Dog, the Department's Mobile Command Center, some of the Special Assignment Unit vehicles, police canines and their handlers, along with many other department vehicles and personnel.

INDONESIAN OFFICIALS VISIT

On October 16, 2012, high-ranking officials of the Indonesian National Police Force and the U.S. Department of State paid a visit to the Chandler Police Department. As honored guests, they attended a formal presentation conducted by the Department's Professional Standards Section and by Chief Sherry Kiyler.

Indonesia currently has a police force approaching 300,000 officers and is home to over 230 million people - making it the world's fourth most populous country. As part of the State Department's concerted effort to bolster the Indonesian National Police Force, the presentation focused on employee processes conducted by the Chandler Police Department. The information was well-received and appreciated by the Indonesian officials, as they are continually seeking ways to improve the management of their large police force.

COMMUNICATIONS REMODEL

After 20 years of non-stop use, the Chandler Communications Center got a much needed renovation in October 2012. The remodel included taking down walls, removing old equipment and installing new - all while maintaining continuous Police Dispatch/911 operations to a city of over 240,000 citizens. Miles of cables were run to accommodate over 70 monitors, computers, and keyboards along with emergency phone and radio systems. Tables, chairs and office equipment were replaced as well.

With the contractor's initial promise to have the renovated center up and running within three weeks, Communications personnel embarked on an adventure in their interim location - a double-wide trailer set up next to the existing facility. The move back into the remodeled facility began on November 19, with the first full 24-hour operational period occurring on Thanksgiving Day 2012. The new Communications Center, 600 square feet larger than before, includes state-of-the-art technology that will allow dispatchers and emergency call-takers to perform their duties more efficiently and well into the future.

"Before" photo - the total renovation time was, remarkably, only a few weeks.

TRUNK OR TREAT!

On October 27, 2012, employees and volunteers from the Chandler Police Department participated in a “Trunk or Treat” Halloween event in the Wendy’s parking lot at Alma School Road and Chandler Boulevard. The Department partnered with the local Wendy’s restaurant and Dignity Health Children’s Dental Clinic to facilitate the event. As a result, over 2,000 community members came together for a fun evening of “trick or treating” and interacting with public safety and health professionals.

Crime Prevention Officers distributed flyers to nearby schools and residences in the area of the event. A number of Chandler businesses and church groups donated candy to be handed out to children. Additionally, a local car club enriched the event by setting up vehicles for exhibition. A number of police- and fire-related static displays were on hand for attendees to view.

This event was the vision of of Chandler Police Officer Kim Homan. She wanted to create an opportunity for the community’s children to positively interact with police officers. Not only did this event hit its intended mark, but it also provided an opportunity for public safety officials to educate children about safe trick-or-treating practices. Additionally, this event raised donations for the dental clinic, which provides free dental care for children in the community.

CRIME MAPS AVAILABLE TO PUBLIC

This year, the Chandler Police Department began providing a new way for the public to stay informed about crime in Chandler. Citizens are now able to access crime maps online through the Department's website, chandlerpd.com. Users have access to maps - allowing them to learn about crime in their area and examine crime data. Additionally, the Department now has the ability to alert the public about crimes as they occur.

Named "RAIDS Online," the public can use this tool to view a map and grid with all the crimes in a specific area. Citizens may also sign up for neighborhood watch reports that automatically email a breakdown of recent crime activity. This tool also has the capability to accept anonymous tips about a crime directly related to an area. RAIDS Online automatically synchronizes with the Department's records management system, keeping crime information up-to-date. The public has access to this tool through a free mobile application. RAIDS Online give users the option of displaying the incidents in a map, grid or dashboard form.

OPEN HOUSES RAISE AWARENESS

In its continuing efforts to strengthen community relationships, the Department hosted two Open Houses in which the public was invited to explore the policing world. Featuring static displays and interactive experiences, police employees and volunteers made themselves available to speak on a variety of police related topics.

In November 2012, the Chandler Heights Substation conducted an Open House which included a prescription drug “take-back” program and “shred-a-thon,” giving community members the opportunity to safely discard unwanted prescription drugs and sensitive documents. In March 2013, the Police Department participated in the second annual Public Safety Day and Department Open House. The Police and Fire Departments joined forces to showcase the City’s public safety resources. The March event took place at the Police Department’s Headquarters.

At each event, a variety of Department and City vehicles were on display. Officers from the Police Department’s many divisions were on hand to speak with attendees. Guided tours of the Police Headquarters Building occurred every half-hour. Demonstrations were given by the Department’s K-9 Unit and Special Assignment Unit’s tactical robot. The March event also featured a car show displaying various police and vintage vehicles.

As always, these family events attracted a large number of visitors, giving them the ability to meet their public safety personnel.

Employees and volunteers make these events a success.
